Notable features:

Scheduled for demolition to make space for recreation facility. These houses are early workers' housing. Rundown though they are, there is an argument for their rehabilitation and re-use. Number 219 is a corner shop (or a stable?); 203-205 are garages which could go.

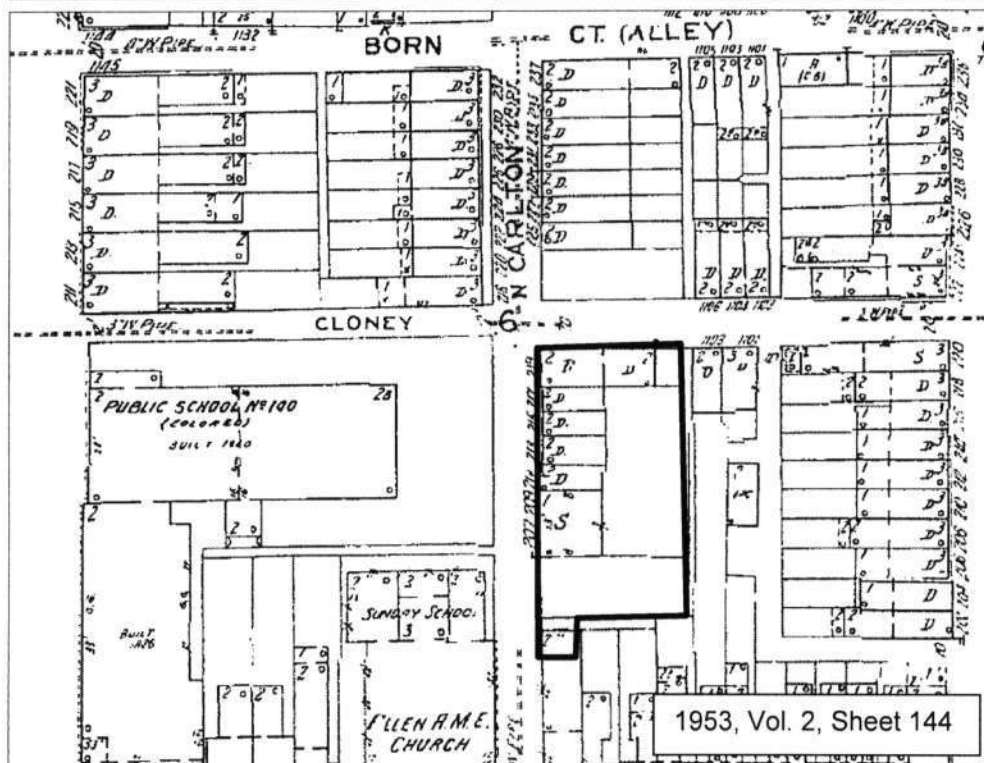

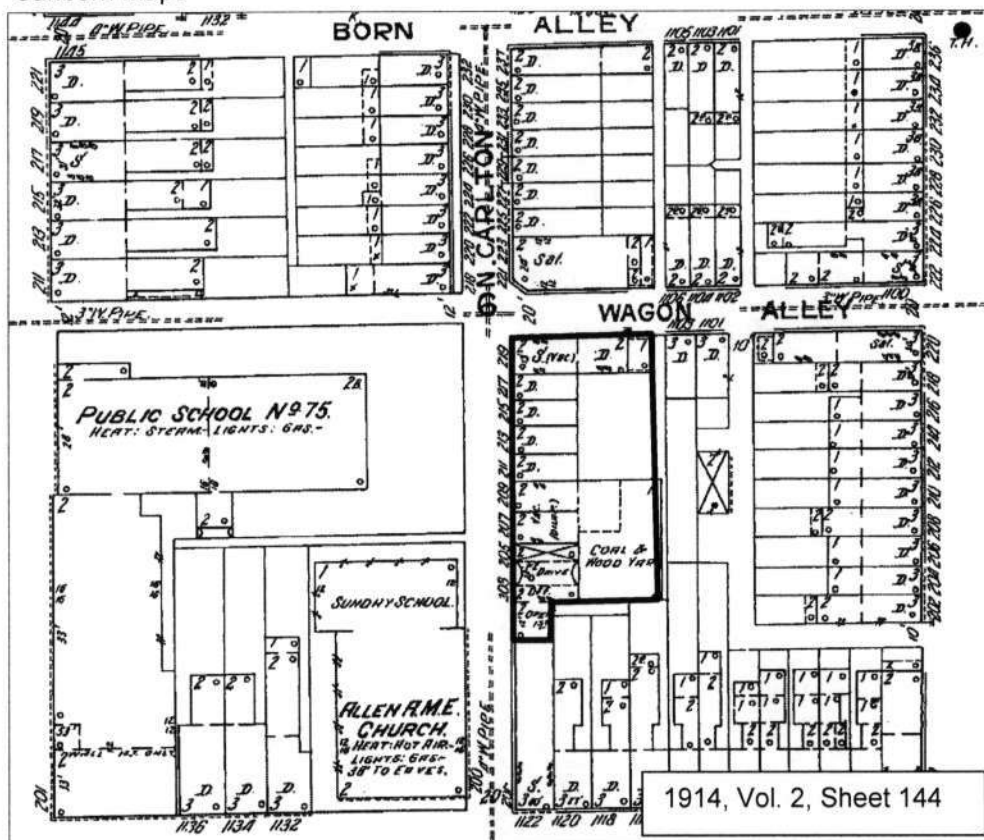

Environmental context:

Lots at 203-205 have already been cleared. Narrow, quiet street; all units are vacant awaiting the ball. They face the fenced yard of vacant P.S. No. 140.
